Draft Agenda

The times listed are approximate; the order in which these items will be taken is subject to change; other items may be added as necessary.

Thursday January 8th (9am-5pm)

- 1.) Welcome/Review Agenda (C. Godwin)
- 2.) Review addendum IV state implementation plans
- 3.) Formulate recommendations on implementation plans/conservation equivalency proposals

Friday January 9th (9am-3pm)

- 1.) Review the history of previous BRPs development for the Chesapeake Bay and reflect on available supporting information and potential limitations.
- 2.) Review previously proposed options (early 2014) for Chesapeake Bay reference points and identify if any original options could be reconsidered, revised or further developed.
- 3.) Review simulation study completed by Gary Nelson to identify if the Bay BRPs based on current SCAA assessment model could be developed.
- 4.) Identify available information on sex ratios in the Bay and on the coast by size and age, define data gaps.
- 5.) Review up to date information available in literature on sex specific migration rates.
- 6.) Based on data available, attempt to develop conceptual sex specific migration model and parameterize it if possible. Propose sex specific reference points.
- 7.) Identify research needs.
