After graduating college in 2018, I worked for the better part of 5 years on the stern of a handful of commercial fishing vessels based on Cape Cod. These vessels operated largely in town and state waters targeting oysters and surf clams via dredge. Since April of 2024, I have worked full time at the Cape Cod Commercial Fishermen's Alliance overseeing their permit bank and workforce development programs. In summer of 2025, I was approved for an aquaculture lease site in Wellfleet Town waters where I plan to grow and harvest oysters when I can find the time to do so.

Drew Minkiewicz, is an expert in matters relating to Commercial Fishing and Commercial Shipping. Drew's practice focuses on regulatory issues, strategy development, and legislative initiatives. He actively advises a variety of clients regarding matters involving the Regulatory Flexibility Act, Administrative Procedures Act, Endangered Species Act, Marine Mammal Protection Act, Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act, Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, Clean Air Act, the International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships (MARPOL) and International Maritime Organization (IMO) regulations. Drew is an active participant in the federal fisheries management process, providing written commentary and live testimony while working with clients to develop regulatory strategies. Dedicated to remaining at the forefront of the procedures, regulations, statutes and developments specific to this area of law.

Prior to being a partner at his former firm for 17 years, Drew served as Senior Counsel for the Oceans, Fisheries, and Coast Guard subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science and Transportation from 2001-2007. He directly served the subcommittee chair, Senator Olympia Snowe (R-ME) the entire time he was on the staff and worked with Senator John McCain (R-AZ) and Senator Ted Stevens (R-AK), when they were chairs of the full committee. During his time on the committee, he was one of the principal staffers who worked on the last reauthorization of the Magnuson Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act. He was also actively involved in the passage of several Coast Guard reauthorizations and numerous other maritime related pieces of legislation.
